Teacher Comment

Hammed has shown excellent attendance this term, maintaining a perfect record of 100%. However, his engagement in quizzes and assignments has been minimal, reflecting a quiz average of 14.67 and no submitted assignments. It is essential for Hammed to actively participate in class activities and complete assignments to enhance his learning experience. I encourage him to seek help when needed and make use of available resources to improve his understanding of the material. With consistent effort, I believe Hammed can make significant progress in the next term.
