AI Executive Summary

The term report for HAPPY DAYS SCHOOL, focusing on the UPPER PRIMARY classroom for the 2025/2026 - Term 3, highlights a strong attendance rate of 96.15% with 150 students present out of 156. However, academic performance shows concerning trends, particularly in quizzes and assignments, with many students not achieving satisfactory scores or completing assignments. The school has issued 4 certificates, with 11 badges awarded, indicating some level of student engagement in extracurricular activities.

Key Insights

- Overall attendance is high at 96.15%, indicating strong student commitment.
- Average quiz scores are low, with a pass rate of 97.6% but significant room for improvement in individual scores.
- The average completion rate for assignments is 19.23%, suggesting a lack of engagement with homework.
- Only 4 out of 26 assignments were submitted, highlighting a major gap in student participation.
- The majority of students have not completed the course modules, with an average completion of 48.08%.

Potential Risks

- Low assignment submission rates could lead to gaps in understanding and overall academic performance.
- Students with high attendance but low quiz and assignment performance may develop negative attitudes towards learning.
- The lack of engagement in coursework poses a risk of underperformance in future assessments and overall educational development.

Recommendations

- Implement regular check-ins and support sessions for students struggling with assignments and quizzes.

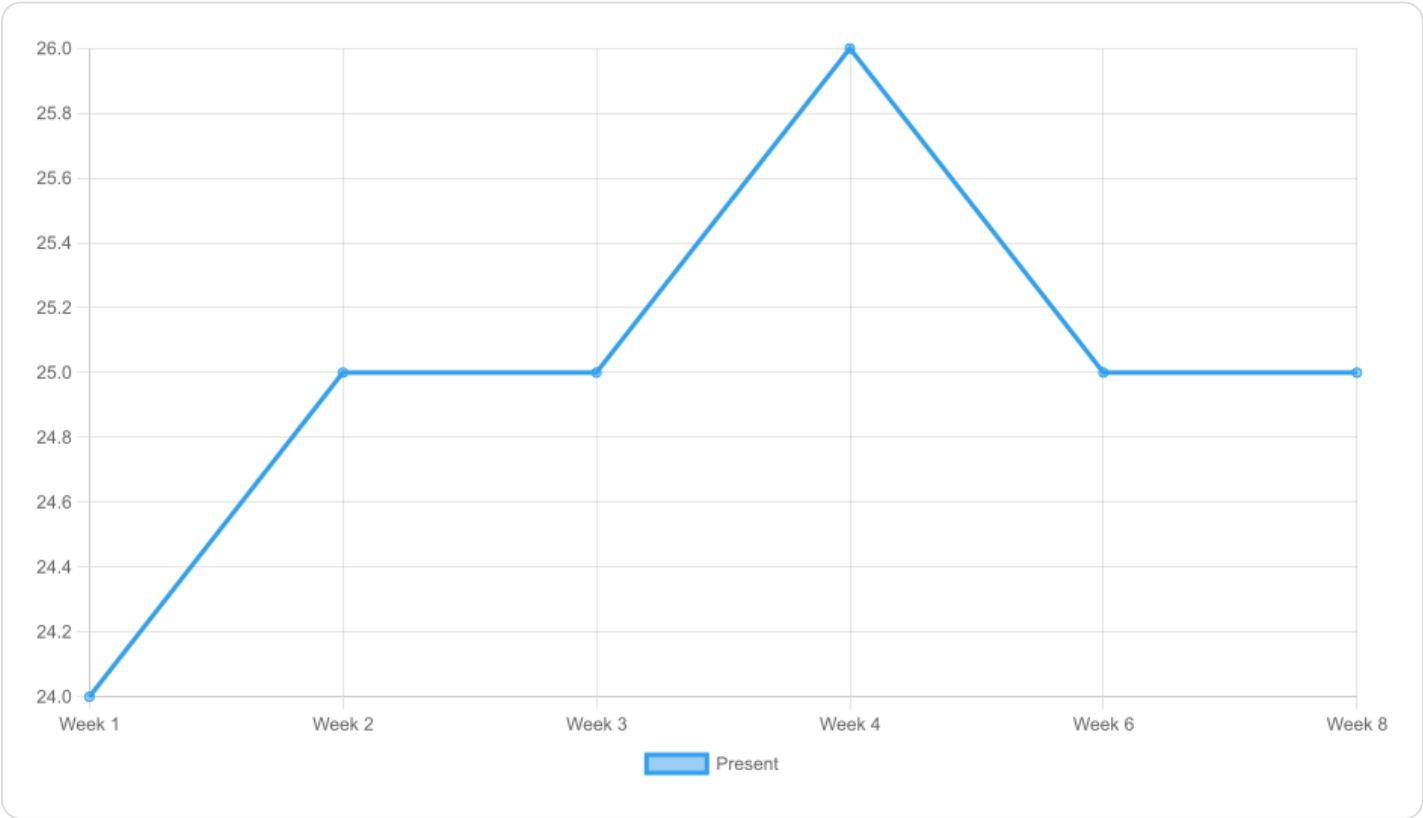

- Encourage collaboration through study groups to enhance engagement and understanding of course material.
- Provide incentives for timely assignment submissions to motivate students to participate more actively.
- Organize workshops or tutorials focusing on quiz preparation and assignment completion strategies.
- Enhance communication with parents regarding student performance and engagement to foster a supportive learning environment at home.
